ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

The convention of the Vermont State Dental Society will be held in Burlington Wednesday, Thursday and Friday May 15, 16, 17 and 18.

The next meeting of the Vermont Board of Pharmacy will be held in Montpelier January 1, for examination of candidates. Correspondence should be addressed to J. G. Bellows, Burlington.

The jury in the Orange county murder trial, Saturday morning received the case of State vs. Frank Campbell, charged with assault with intent to rob a man named McCarty, in Randolph last October, and in the afternoon brought in a verdict of guilty.

Unless there is rain within the immediate future, Montpelier and vicinity will experience a drought this winter, as the unusually cold weather of the past fortnight has frozen up the small streams and the wells are frozen at any time for months past.

Albert H. Ward died in the Remond Soldiers' Home hospital, Montpelier. He had suffered from a complication of disease. He was 25 years old and served during the rebellion in Co. E, 4th Vermont. He was admitted to the home from Remond's on 1894, and the afternoon brought in a verdict of guilty.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed Monday by G. Lafayette Thomas of Remond, a salesman. He has liabilities of $1,000, all unsecured claims and assets of $400, claimed exempt. A petition was also filed by Ernest J. Richard of St. Albans, a plumber who has liabilities of $175, unsecured claims and assets of $115, of which $200 is claimed exempt.

The funeral of Andrew H. Wells of Chester, who died Saturday after six months' illness with heart trouble, took place Tuesday at the Wells Chapel, Rev. Henry L. Baldwin officiating. Mr. Wells, who was a farmer, was a resident of Chester for 33 years. Two children, Andrew M. and Roy W., survive. He also leaves two brothers, who live in California, and two sisters in Canada.
